Market Environment

Staying Agile in an Evolving Business Landscape

Macroeconomic Uncertainties

Slower growth, policy changes and foreign exchange volatility may impact investment decisions

Persistent Supply Chain Challenges

Tariffs are expected to raise material costs and lead to shortages

Geopolitical and Trade Tensions

Trade conflicts and uncertainty are reshaping global trade flows

Rising Competitive Pressures

Margin tightens as industry players accelerate technology investments to meet evolving demand

Navigating Change, Sustaining Progress

Heavy Engineering

Upstream Spending Rises with Caution

Offshore and FPSO momentum builds amid rising production needs, although investment remain selective

Sustained Momentum in Energy Transition

Capital continues to flow into new energy, though future momentum hinges on policy clarity and regulatory support

Marine

Geopolitical Shifts Reshaping Marine Opportunities

Trade and regional tensions are shifting repair and maintenance work to Asiabased yards

Green Transition Gathers Pace

Decarbonisation efforts are fueling demand for vessel retrofits and low-emission upgrades across marine yards
